

PRESS RELEASE

Update on the launch of the video game Wuchang: Fallen Feathers

- Reached n.1 on Steam's Global Sales Chart
- The Group reassures on timely delivery of technical patches

Milan, July 24, 2025 – Digital Bros Group (DIB:MI), video games company listed on the Euronext STAR Milan (ISIN: IT0001469995) and part of the FTSE Italia Small Cap index, provides an update on the launch of the video game Wuchang: Fallen Feathers, released today for PC, consoles and Xbox Game Pass.

The game has attracted strong attention from the gaming community, reaching the top position on the global sales chart of the Steam marketplace before the official release and, on launch day, it recorded over 130,000 concurrent users on the platform. However, a number of players have reported some technical issues, especially related to the game's optimization on Steam.

The Group, together with the developer Lenzee Chengdu Lingze Technology Co. Ltd. and local partners, is actively working to identify and resolve the reported issues. A first corrective patch is expected shortly and will focus on improving overall performance.

The Group remains confident that Wuchang: Fallen Feathers is a high-value project capable of delivering solid results in the current fiscal year and play a key role into the Group's medium-to-long-term strategy.
